

Born in Lincolnshire, England, about 1590.

Richard Bellingham

Died in Boston, Massachusetts 7 December

Winning favor by

1672. An Uncompromising Puritan. A

Incorruptible Devotion

member of the Company to which was ^{to the} Common Welfare &

granted the Charter of the Massachusetts

Consistent Hostility

Bay Colony. He migrated to New Eng-

^{to} Autocracy. He lived land 1634 and served the Colony as

Honorably and died

Treasurer, Deputy Governor, and Governor. Learned in the Laws of England.

Honored. A true

New England Man.

Slow of speech, difficult of temper.