

ISAAC JOHNSON

A man of fidelity & promise, whose early death in 1630 following hard upon that of

HIS WIFE

THE LADY ARBELLA

Sister to
The Earl of Lincoln

Cast deep Gloom upon the Colony.

"This Gentleman was a prime man Amongst us, having the best estate of any, zealous for Religion, and the Greatest furtherer of this Plantation."

"He was a holy man, and wise, and died in sweet peace, leaving some part of his substance to the Colony." JOHN WINTHROP