S. T. D. Harvard University 1932
Died in Boston, September 23, 1962

*A gentle and ever-truthful scholar, in the study of faith and of humanity,
he preached the ageless truths of Jesus with a simple and gracious eloquence.
His were the hands of a man who knew the joy of work & the honesty of friendship, His was the heart of a man who loved the world's variety & could laugh at its surprises, He walked uprightly & worked righteousness & spoke the truth that unfolded within him.*
