

JOSIAH QUINCY, JUNIOR
PATRIOT 1744 - 1775

With equal fervor he urged Resistance to Royal Oppression & argued for Justice to the British Officer at whose word of command the 'Boston Massacre' took place. Bearing unwritten messages of grave import to the patriotic party as whose agent he visited England he died with incalculable loss to his beloved country as the ship on which he was returning entered Gloucester Harbor.

A FLAME OF FREEDOM
TOO SOON EXTINGUISHED