

JOHN WINTHROP

For many years Governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony the Charter of which he brought over in 1630. Moderate and Magnanimous, who made Religious Obligation the spirit of his daily life, and spent his strength and substance in the cause of New England. "A gentleman of that wisdom and virtue and those manifold accomplishments that after-generations must reckon him no less a glory than he was a PATRIOT OF THE COUNTRY.

BORN 1587 IN ENGLAND - DIED 1649 IN BOSTON - PURITAN LEADER